

FREE RETURN TICKET TO DEVONPORT

Your free return trip to Devonport allows you to further explore Auckland and discover one of the city's most historic suburbs.

Just 12 minutes across the harbour, the marine village of Devonport boasts pretty Victorian villas, sandy beaches, stylish shops and charming cafés. It's a great place to spend a day or afternoon.

Climb to the top of the distinctive volcanic cones of Mount Victoria or North Head for fantastic views across the city and nearby islands of the Hauraki Gulf. Take a stroll along Cheltenham Beach, browse the interesting art galleries and gift shops along Victoria Road or simply relax with a coffee and watch the world go by!

FERRIES TO DEVONPORT

Ferries depart Auckland and Devonport approximately every half hour. Evening and early morning sailings vary.

Why not use your ticket to go over to Devonport for a relaxing evening meal? Finish your day with a stroll along the waterfront and get great views of the city by night.

ABOUT FULLERS HARBOUR CRUISE

Fullers Harbour Cruise is the best way to experience Auckland's beautiful Waitemata Harbour and also gives you a free return trip to Devonport, which can be used whenever you like. You will also have the chance to stopover at Rangitoto Island, and experience first hand its unique volcanic terrain. With complimentary morning or afternoon tea and fascinating commentary from our friendly crew, we firmly believe that no other cruise package gives you so much for such great value!

HARBOUR CRUISE POINTS OF INTEREST

1 BEAN ROCK LIGHTHOUSE

Situated at the entrance to Waitemata Harbour, this historic lighthouse was built in 1871 and its small hexagonal cottage provided accommodation for one lightkeeper. The light became automatic in 1912, and the iconic design now appears on a New Zealand beer brand.

2 RANGITOTO ISLAND

Rangitoto Island erupted from the sea in a series of dramatic explosions about 600 years ago, and is now dormant. Its summit commands spectacular 360° views of Auckland and the islands of the Hauraki Gulf. You will stopover here briefly. See overleaf for more details of our Volcanic Explorer Tour.

3 NORTH HEAD, DEVONPORT

North Head guards the entrance to the harbour and for this reason was made into an artillery battery in 1885 to defend Auckland from invasion. It has many interesting gun emplacements and tunnels to explore, not to mention great walks and views of the harbour.

4 DEVONPORT NAVAL BASE

The naval base in Devonport dates back to 1840 when William Hobson, then Governor of New Zealand, arrived on the HMS Herald and established Auckland as New Zealand's (short lived) capital. Today it is an important administrative centre for the Royal New Zealand Navy.

5 AUCKLAND HARBOUR BRIDGE

The Harbour Bridge opened in 1959 and took over 200 workers nearly 4 years to build. It originally only had four lanes (traffic increased so much that a further two lanes were added later on each side). If you so desire, you can climb or jump off the bridge with adventure company A J Hackett.

6 CHELSEA SUGAR REFINERY

Chelsea Sugar, one of New Zealand's iconic food brands, has been producing sugar at this refinery in Birkenhead since 1884. Today the company produces 200,000 tonnes of raw sugar each year. The factory is situated in a beautiful privately owned park, which is open to the public.

7 WESTHAVEN MARINA & THE VIADUCT

The largest marina in the southern hemisphere, Westhaven can accommodate up to 1800 boats ranging in sizes up to 28m. Nearby, the Viaduct Marina is home to many bars and restaurants as well as the Voyager New Zealand Maritime Museum and several superyachts.

MORNING OR AFTERNOON TEA

Choose from tea, coffee or juice and a selection of delicious muffins (morning) and cakes (afternoon).
